

2014 Iowa Sporting Spaniel Club Gunning Seminar

Welcome! The Iowa Sporting Spaniel Club invites you to participate in an ESSFTA Field Trial Gunning Seminar. Our instructor will be Mark Haglin, the chair of the ESSFTA gunning program.

Date, Time, and Location Date: Saturday, May 17, 2014
Time: Classroom begins at 8:00 AM

Classroom	Field Work
Linden House	Big Spring Range
Lynnville, IA	Searsboro, IA
www.lindenhouse.com	www.bigspringsrange.com

Objectives At the completion of this seminar you will have an understanding of the following:

- Field Trial Gunning Program
- Basics of Field Trial Gunning
- SAFETY!
- How to handle specific situations

Additionally your name will placed on the list of qualified gunners for Springer and Cocker field trials.

What to Bring Bring the following items with you:

- Blaze orange article of clothing to be worn above the waist
- Eye and hearing protection for field work
- Appropriate clothing and footwear for fieldwork and weather.
- Break action shotgun and factory loaded ammo (shot size 5, 6, or 7)

Registration Registration fee includes a continental breakfast, lunch, and training materials.

Early Bird Registration $40.00 per person
After May 10th $60.00 per person

For more information or to register contact:
Holly Boggess at info@iowaspaniel.org or (515) 205-3223.

Lodging Due to commencement at Grinnell College lodging is limited in Grinnell. Rooms have been reserved at the Linden House until May 1st for this event.
