ECSCA FTC Meeting Minutes

Teleconference Call

Present; Martin Bell, Tom Calabrese, Tawney Crawford, A.R. Ginn, Rumi Schroeder.

Rumi called the FTC to order at 7PM Central Time.

OLD Business:

Correction: The English Springer Spaniel parent club rejected the proposal of having the Spaniel Master Hunter Qualifying Score suffice as the FC required Water Test. In the Eastern region, Gary Wilson will hold a Water Test this summer for all interested spaniel enthusiast.

NCC 2008 and NCC 2009: nothing new to report.

The Gun Advisory Committee is reviewing concepts regarding participation on the NCC Gun Team. The committee will formalize the concepts for review at the next FTC meeting.

New Business:

NCC 2009 Judge's panel is currently being assembled; any recommendations from the Cocker community should be forwarded, this week, to their region representative for inclusion. The panel will be review, methodically summarized to eight, and finalized at the next FTC meeting.

Some comments have been received from the Cocker community regarding the Judges Committee report. In general very favorable feedback. All suggestions, recommendations and comments are being forwarded to the Judges Committee Chair, Paul McGagh. Please send additional comments to your regional representative, who will then, forwarded them on to the Judges Committee. See FTC report dated 5.13.08 for the committee's full report.

Nominations for the Harold S. Bixby Award are being requested. A brief write-up and the nomination should be sent to Sue Rose at roses@msu.edu. The Award is presented at the NCC honoring a person who has contributed extensively to the Cocker movement.

Next meeting is schedule for 06.10.08 same time, same place.
