Cocker Field Trial Checklist

	Secure suitable grounds for the event ECSCA approval from the FTC Chairperson (Must be done prior to filing AKC application - must have specific address and dates for the event)
	Determine field trial committee (necessary to complete AKC application) Determine field trial judges (necessary to complete AKC application - must meet cocker field trial judging criteria) months prior to the trial date)
	Decide whether the secretary will use entryexpress.com or produce their own premium and catalog
	Choose a qualified gun captain (Gun captain selects gun team)
	Order birds (average 6 birds per entry per day)
	Determine a bird planter and whether they will plant off an ATV or use a planters vest
	a a sumada)
	Determine field marshals and radios
	Decide on whether or not to have a banquet
	Plan for lunches for judges, workers and handlers Make motel reservations for judges and any other necessary people Get gifts for the judges (average cost is based on $50 each day judged)
	Plan for cleaning the birds
	Plan for "Thank you" speech prior to giving placements each day _ 1 fair for Thank you speech prior to giving placements each day
Suppl	ies for the Trial
	Porta potties
	Flags (at least 40 flags)
	Ammunition for the gun team
	Snacks and water or other beverages for the judges and workers
	Shag baskets
	Trap boxes
	_ 11ap boxes
Sacra	tary Duties
Secre	Mail the AKC 2 copies of the premium and map to the grounds prior to posting
	the premium on www.fieldcockers.com
	Email premium and map to the grounds to www.fieldcockers.com
	Email running orders to www.fieldcockers.com once they are complete Create and print hard copies of the running orders and catalogs for the trial
	Create hard copies of the emergency plan to post on the grounds Complete AKC final paperwork within 5 business days of the trial along the check for the fees ($3.50 per dog per stake) Send results for each day of the trial to www.fieldcockers.com within 7 business days of the trial